An MMO is committed when, at any time during the day of a match, but excluding the time from the start to the end of the match, a person, player, official, club member, who is due to participate in or is at the match, or who has participated in or at the match, misconducts himself/herself in such a way that one of the match umpires decides: (a) it would have warranted the issue of a Red Card had such misconduct occurred during the match, and (b) is to be reported as an MMO, and the umpire so informs the offender, where possible, either directly or through another person, player, official, club member, on the day of the match.

As soon as reasonably practicable after the umpire has decided to report an MMO, the umpire shall inform a representative of the affiliated body for which the offender is to participate or has participated on the day of the relevant match, that the offender's misconduct is to be reported as an MMO to the Secretary of Munster Hockey. The MMO is to be reported no later than 72 hours after the game time using the MMO form.

On receipt of the Red Card/MMO report, the Secretary of Munster Hockey shall convene the disciplinary committee to deal with the Red Card/MMO report.
