

WE ARE HIRING!

Hockey Coach

Bandon Grammar School is seeking applications for the post of Hockey Coaches from September 2024. This is an opportunity to work within a supportive, dynamic, and progressive boarding school. Bandon Grammar School is a place of learning and commits to support staff in their continuing professional development. The successful candidate must be willing to make a significant contribution to the co-curricular provision of the school and participate fully in the wider life of our busy boarding community. Opportunities to work in the boarding school will present, with the provision of accommodation, meals, access to the gym and onsite parking all available for the successful candidate in addition to a salaried position.

Bandon Grammar School, Cork has enjoyed a great reputation as one of Ireland's premier hockey schools, having in recent years won the All-Ireland Senior Schools Championships. The school also has a rich history in winning the Munster Senior Cups. At the same time, the Senior, Junior and Minor teams have won many cup and league titles, at all levels, to go with the massive enjoyment and love of hockey experienced by our pupils.
